

International regimes in a globalized world

International seminar, National Defence Institute

29th November 2016

Programme

09h45 | Opening remarks

Vitor Daniel Rodrigues Viana, Director of the National Defence Institute

10h05 | Regime theory – Is it still useful to understand international cooperation?

Peter Mayer, Professor of International Relations, Institute for Intercultural and International Studies, University of Bremen

10h35 | Transnational threats and security regimes

Harald Müller, Former Executive Director of the Peace Research Institute (Frankfurt) and Professor Emeritus of International Relations and Peace Studies, Goethe University (Frankfurt)

Moderator: Isabel Ferreira Nunes, Head of the Research Centre, National Defence Institute

11h05-11h20 | Debate

Coffee break

11h35 | The EU and global governance

Mario Telò, Member of the Royal Academy of Science (Brussels) and Professor Emeritus of International Relations, Université Libre (Brussels) and LUISS (Rome)

12h05 | Global mobility regimes

Raquel Freitas, Researcher, Center for the Research and Study of Sociology, ISCTE – University Institute of Lisbon

Moderator: Isabel Ferreira Nunes

12h35-12h50 | Debate

End of the seminar